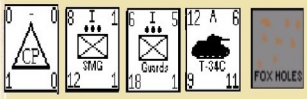
OSTFRONT
SITUATION #1

The Railway Station Stalingrad: September 15th 1942

The Germans with over half of Stalingrad in their possession are pushing east through Stalingrad towards the Volga river. Spearheading the assault in central Stalingrad is the 71st Infantry Division. Recently brought up to stop the Germans is the Soviet 13th Guards Rifle Division

Map Configuration

SOVIET FORCES

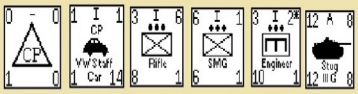


x 2 x 4

OFF BOARD ARTILLERY Provided by 1 x Battery Of 82mm Mortars, Can Be Called In By The CP

SET UP DUG IN ON THE EAST OF THE MAP & THE RAILWAY STATION

GERMAN FORCES



Offboard artillery support is provided by 1 x 81mm mortar battery which may be called in by CP

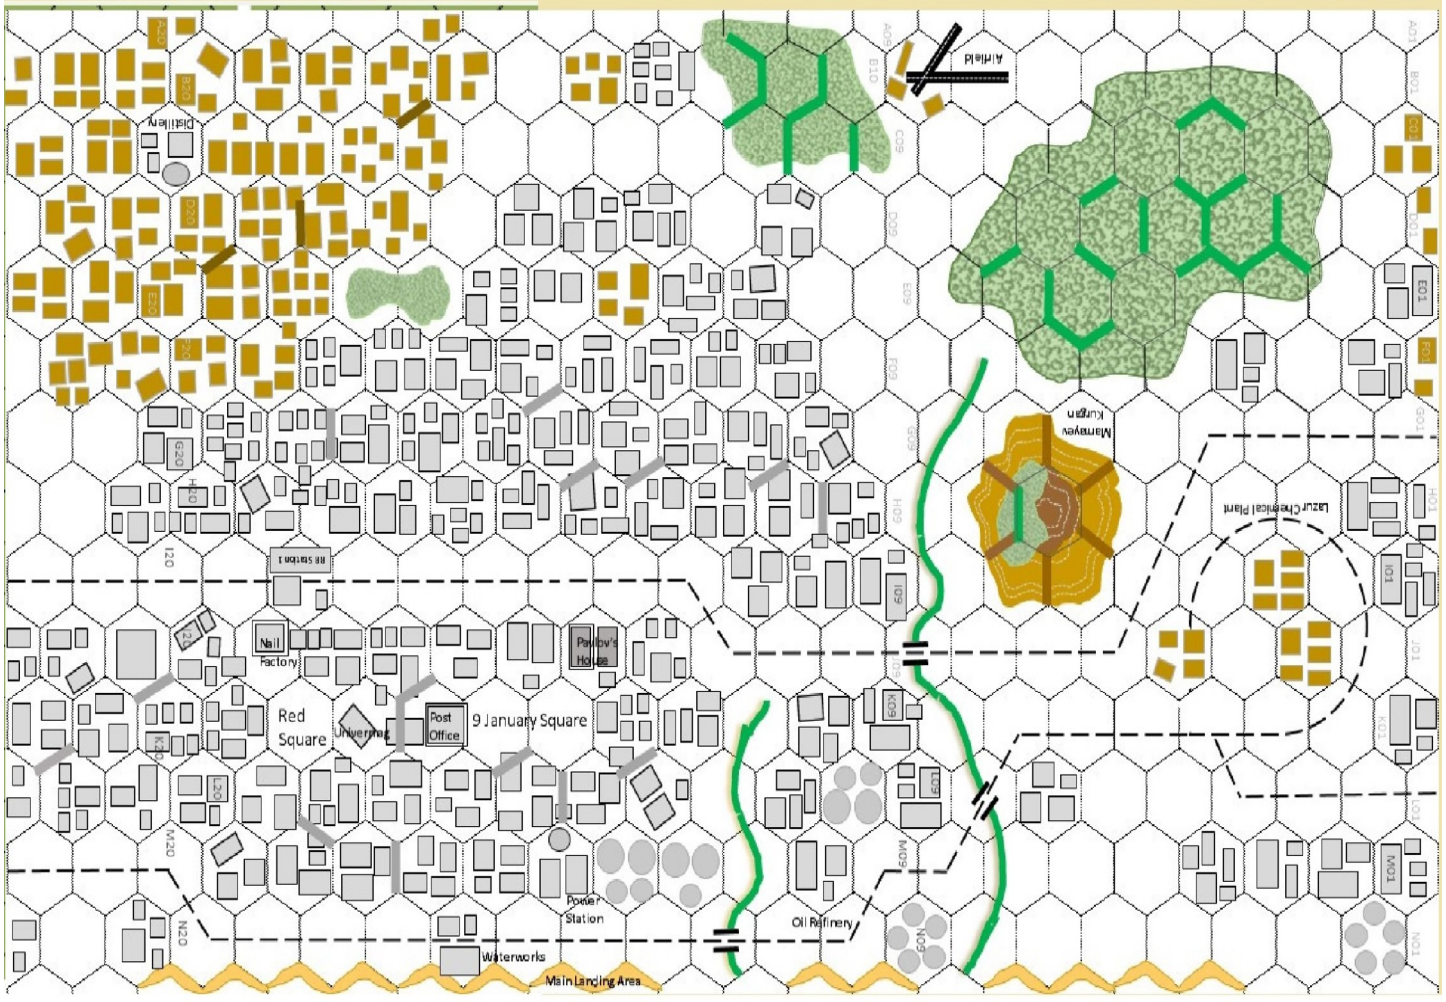
An airstrike by Stukas on one or two pre-designated targets occurs on turn 1

SET UP AT THE WESTERN EDGE OF THE MAP

Victory Conditions

The side with complete control of the railway station by games end wins. All else is a draw.

TURN 1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	END 15



Historically the 13th Guards Rifle division slowed the Germans with the 71st infantry reaching the Volga on September 27th.